When Billy wakes up to get dressed ...

He often tends to make a mess.

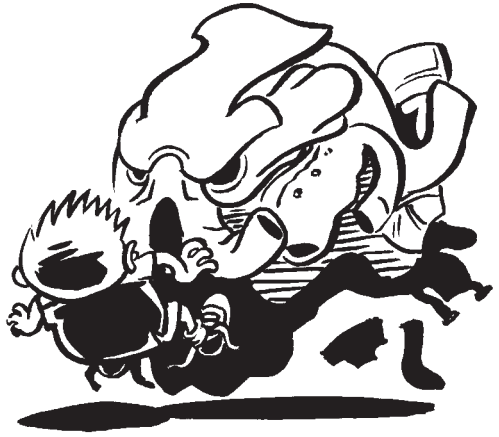

The dirty pile grew to a mound.

To his surprise, y'know what he found?

The pile!
It moved!

It smiles.

IT THINKS!

It hasn't been washed in weeks--

It stinks!

Well, this scared Billy--

all this crap.

When lo! Young Billy spied a map!

A black and white cartoon illustration. In the center, a young boy with a surprised expression is looking at a large map he is holding open. He is wearing a dark jacket over a light shirt and dark shoes. To his right, a dog is looking at him. The dog is wearing a dark coat with a light-colored collar and a dark hat. A speech bubble from the dog points towards the boy. Another speech bubble from the boy is positioned above him.

Wow! What's this map?
Where does it end?

Well let me show
you, little friend.

We'll find vast treasures beyond the seas!

"On an isle with FREE smoothies."

But, Billy had never left before,

As Laundry pushed him out the door.

Past the shoes and down the stairs.

And out the door beyond his cares.

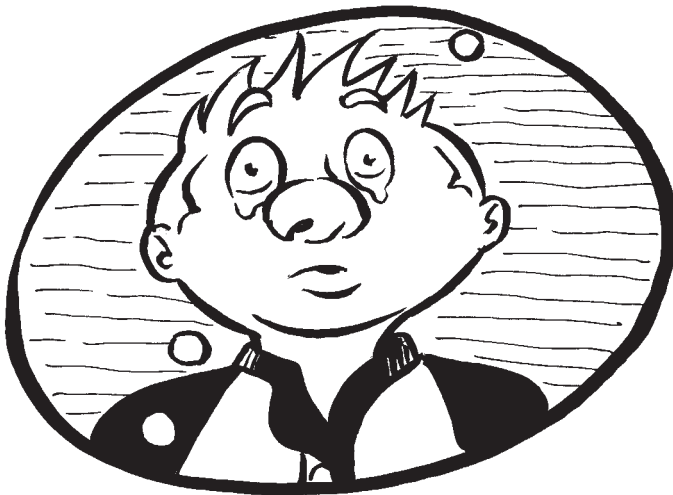

He grabbed Bill's hand--pulled towards the sand.

And towards a boat at the end of land.

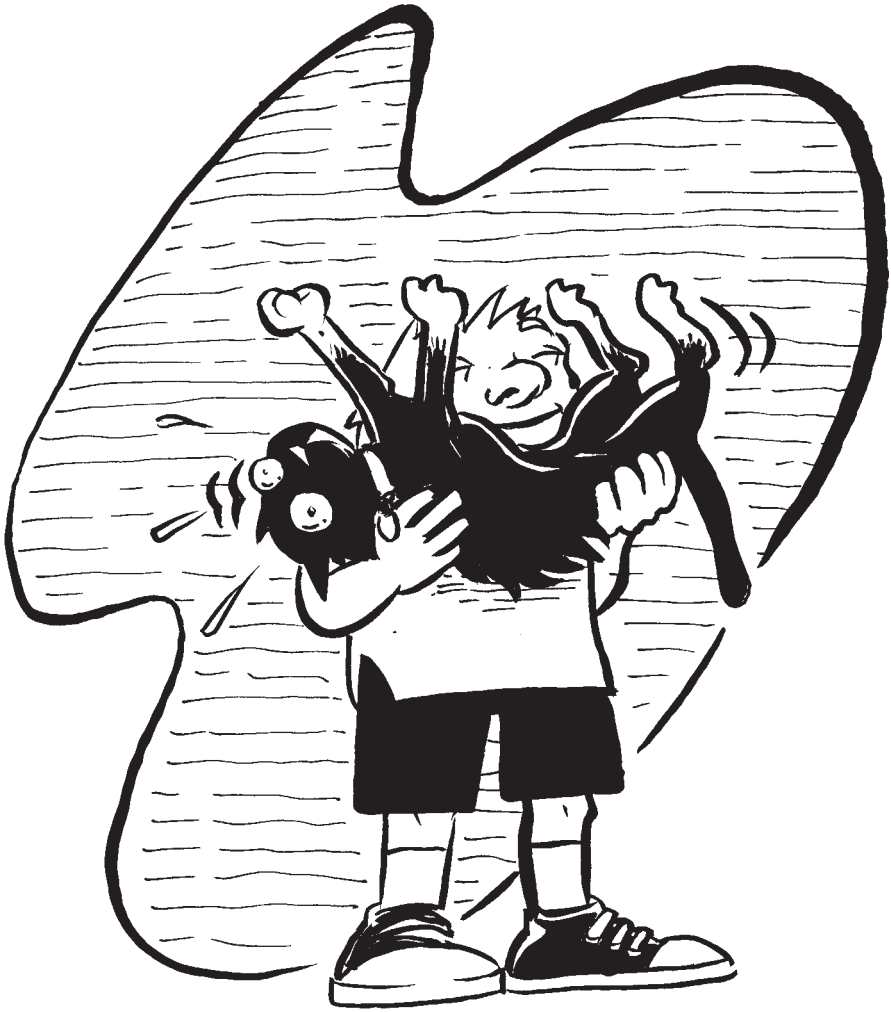

But what
'bout Mom?

What 'bout
Dad?

Who would take care of this lad?

How 'bout Socks, his trusty cat?

Just then they passed the Laundromat.

What a smell!

--not to be mean--

But Pile must visit to get clean!

And once clean, Laundry's tone...

CHANGED!

And they went home.

Though cleaning is what Bill likes the least...

He now knows he must tame the beast.
